DESCRIBING TOPS OR COATS

To describe a top or a coat, describe it as if you were wearing it, using your body as the reference point. Use this sequence as a guideline:

1. name item (give color if only one)
2. describe neckline, and sleeve length
3. describe pattern (name base color, then other colors)
4. describe other details (pockets, snaps, sheer, beads, hood, zipper, fur trim, puffy)

Describing Tops

Observe how Lauren follows the sequence to describe this top. Notice the fourth part of the sequence does not apply since the blouse doesn't have any other details.

Describing Coats

Observe how Amber follows the sequence to describe this coat. Notice the third part of the sequence does not apply since the coat has no pattern.

BAGS

To describe a purse or bag, describe it in neutral space in front of you. Use this sequence as a guideline:

1. name item (give color if only one)
2. describe size, shape and its handle
3. describe details (pattern, fastener, zipper, pockets, or flaps)
4. tell how it is handled or carried

Describing Bags

Observe how Lauren follows the sequence to describe this bag.
